3. Venue of this case and this Motion is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

BACKGROUND

4. On or about December 29, 1998, Huntington entered into a lease (the "Lease") with Circuit City Stores, Inc. (Debtor) for a portion of that certain real property of which Huntington is the owner, commonly known as Unit No. 32, Huntington Mall, Barboursville, West Virginia, with an initial term of ten years, which was extended for an additional ten year term. True and correct copies of the Lease and the Commencement Date Agreement are attached hereto as Exhibit A and are incorporated herein by reference.¹

5. Clause 4 of the Lease provides that Debtor shall pay minimum rent for the Demised Premises during each calendar month.

6. Clause 9 of the Lease provides for the payment of real estate and business and occupation taxes.

7. Clause 7(d) of the Lease provides that Debtor shall pay common area maintenance ("CAM") charges for the Demised Premises

8. Clause 14 of the Lease provides that Debtor shall pay an insurance charge as additional rent for the Demised Premises.

9. Clause 28(a) of the Lease provides that unpaid leasehold charges due pursuant to the Lease shall bear interest at the rate of four percent plus the "Prime Rate" per annum.

10. On or about November 10, 2008, Debtor commenced a case under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in this Court.

¹ Only the CM/ECF filed copy and the copy served on Debtor's counsel include the full Exhibits; however, Exhibits will be provided upon request, or can be obtained by accessing this Motion on the CM/ECF docket in the above-referenced matter.

11. On or about March 4, 2009, the Debtor filed a Notice of Rejection of Unexpired Leases and Abandonment of Personal Property [Doc. No. 2408], whereby the Debtor rejected the Lease effective on March 10, 2009.

12. The Debtor failed to pay certain rental charges due and payable during the post-petition period. As further described herein, the Debtor owes Huntington the total sum of $33,891.42 for monthly rent and related charges accrued during the post-petition time period of November 10, 2008 through March 9, 2009.

RELIEF REQUESTED

13. By this Motion, Huntington requests that the Court enter an order for (i) allowance of Stub Rent as an administrative expense claim; (ii) allowance and payment of an administrative expense claim for additional, post-petition rent and related charges under Sections 365(d)(3) and 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (iii) allowance and payment of an administrative expense claim for attorney's fees and costs pursuant to the provisions of the Lease.

ARGUMENT

A. Allowance of Stub Rent as an Administrative Expense Claim

14. The Debtor filed its bankruptcy petition on November 10, 2008, but failed to pay rent and related charges to Huntington for the entire month. In its Memorandum Opinion dated February 12, 2009 (the "Stub Rent Opinion") [Doc. No. 2107], the Court held that lessors holding leases that required the Debtor to pay its November 2008 rental obligations on November 1, 2008 were:

... accorded administrative priority expense treatment under §§ 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, and such Stub Rent claims shall be payable upon the effective date of any plan of reorganization in these cases, or at such time as the Court may order upon further motion.

See Stub Rent Opinion, pg. 14.

15. Here, the Debtor agreed that rent to Huntington “shall be paid in equal monthly installments in advance on the first day of each succeeding calendar month throughout the [Lease] Term” and in accordance with Clause 4(c) of the Lease. See Exhibit A. For the month of November, the contract rate of base rent was $33,436.18. During that month, other rent-related charges also accrued, i.e., CAM charges in the amount of $966.45, annual real estate taxes of $25,394.84, insurance in the amount of $612.09 and service charges of $525.22. Thus, the Debtor owes Huntington Stub Rent in the amount of $26,600.34 for the period of November 10-30, 2008. Huntington’s accounting statement for the Stub Rent period is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

16. Pursuant to the Stub Rent Opinion, Huntington is entitled to an administrative expense claim in the amount of $33,281.88 for Stub Rent payable on the effective date of the confirmed Chapter 11 plan of the Debtor or on such other date as ordered by the Court.²

B. Allowance and Payment of Additional, Post-Petition Rent and Related Charges

17. Generally, debtors “must timely perform” all of their obligations “arising from and after the order for relief under any unexpired lease of non-residential real property, until such lease is assumed or rejected, notwithstanding section 503(b)(1).” See 11 U.S.C. § 365(d)(3).

18. Furthermore, it is well established that a landlord of nonresidential real property is not to be forced to contribute its real property for the benefit of the bankruptcy estate without the landlord being adequately compensated for the burden of ownership borne by the landlord. See e.g., In re Trak Auto Corp., 277 B.R. 655, 662 (Bankr. E.D. Va. 2002) (noting that landlord cannot be forced to become involuntary creditors of a debtor), aff'd 288 B.R. 114 (E.D. Va 2003), rev'd on other grounds, 367 F.3d 237 (4th Cir. 2004).

19. To that end, courts have held that a debtor's failure to pay its post-petition rent, taxes, and other charges to the lessor results in an administrative expense priority claim for the full amount of such charges as provided for in the lease. See In re Midway Airlines Corp., 406 F. 3d 229, 235-37 (4th Cir. 2005); see also, In re Pudgie's Dev. Of NY, Inc., 202 B.R. 832, 836 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996) ("the provisions of §§ 365(b)(1) and 365(d)(3) unambiguously grant priority status to [landlords as a] . . . class of involuntary claimant[s]").

20. Moreover, Section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code permits lessors to obtain administrative expense claims for post-petition charges for rent, taxes, CAM and other rental fees, in that such charges are "actual, necessary costs and expenses of preserving the estate." See 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(1)(A); see also, In re Garden Ridge Corp., 323 B.R. 136, 140-43 (Bankr. D. Del. 2005) (holding that where a lessee-debtor occupies and uses the leased premises, a lessor is entitled to an administrative claim equaling the fair market value of such premises under Section 503(b)(1)(A)) (internal citations omitted); see also, In re ZB Company Inc., 302 B.R. 316, 319 (Bankr. D. Del. 2003) ("Absent evidence to the contrary, the contract rate is presumed to be the fair rental value.").

21. Here, the Debtor has failed to pay certain of its monthly rent obligations and related charges,³ including CAM charges, real estate taxes, insurance and service charges to Huntington for the months of December 2008, January 2009, February 2009, and for the period of March 1-9, 2009. Accordingly, Huntington requests allowance and payment of its administrative rent claim in the amount of $7,291.08 pursuant to Sections 365(d)(3) and §503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

C. Allowance and Payment of Attorney's Fees and Costs

22. The Lease expressly allows recovery by Huntington of its attorney's fees and costs against the Debtor in the event that Huntington prevails in a legal action or proceeding in connection with the Lease. Clause 34(f) of the Lease provides, in pertinent part:

In the event either party shall be required to commence or defend any action or proceeding against any other party by reason of any breach or claimed breach of any provision of this Lease, to commence or defend any action or proceeding in any way connected with this Lease or to seek a judicial declaration of rights under this Lease, the party prevailing in such action or proceeding shall be entitled to recover from or to be reimbursed by the other party for the prevailing party's reasonable and actual attorney's fees and costs through all levels of proceedings.

See Exhibit A.

23. Accordingly, Huntington requests that the Court award Huntington its attorney's fees in an amount to be proven at the hearing on this Motion and in accordance with clause 34(f) of the parties' Lease.

REQUEST FOR WAIVER OF LOCAL RULE 9013-1(G)

24. Huntington respectfully requests that this Court treat this Motion as a written memorandum of points and authorities or waive any requirement that this Motion be accompanied by a written memorandum of points and authorities as described in Local Rule 9013-1(G).

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, for the above-stated reasons, Huntington requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order granting Huntington: (i) an allowed administrative claim for Stub Rent in the amount of $26,600.34 in accordance with this Court's Stub Rent Opinion; (ii) an allowed administrative expense claim directing prompt payment of $7,291.08 for unpaid, post-petition rent and related charges that became due and owing during the time period of December 1, 2008 through March 9, 2009; (iii) an allowed administrative expense claim directing prompt payment of Huntington's incurred attorney's fees and costs in an amount to be proven at the hearing on this Motion; and (v) any other and further relief that this Court deems just and proper.
